Dear Andy:

Receipt of your 1 February 1949 letter concerning [redacted] progress during the last 60 days is gratefully acknowledged.

I am indeed very glad that [redacted] has shown considerable improvement and promises to make us a good employee. Please advise him of my gratitude and confidence that he will continue to improve as time goes on.

I am sure that I do not need to mention that we should continue to observe him closely, even though he is no longer to be considered in a probational status.

Sincerely,

L. K. White
